use the creative energy of metaphor to clarify and make your leadership vision a reality how do you see yourself as an educator how would you describe yourself as a leader have you ever considered using metaphors to reframe your leadership practice vision and mission often leaders stumble when asked to articulate their values ethics and purpose this book illustrates the significance of leadership archetypes and metaphoric reframing in understanding and facilitating organizational change leadership myth metaphor reports on the findings of a professional development study funded by the gates foundation of more than 250 superintendents and principals celebrating educators unique individual core values while acknowledging their shared intrinsic beliefs including a commitment to a cause beyond oneself a devotion to an ethic of care a desire to improve the condition of society a wish to make a significant impression on student and adult lives a conviction to inspire others to seek their full potential awareness of yourself on a personal and professional level leads to a deeper consideration of your mission as a leader and of your purpose in life this groundbreaking collection brings the range and diversity of post jungian thought into the realm of contemporary literary and cultural criticism these essays explore expand critique and apply post jungian critical theory as they revisit and reread jung s own writings from numerous perspectives no longer treated as a source of clear unequivocal authoritative pronouncement jung s writings are themselves subjected to critical deconstructive readings and several of the essays confront head on jung s evident racism antifeminism anti semitism and political conservatism while not downplaying such charges the contributors outline an alternative post jungian theory responsive to contemporary feminist postcolonial and poststructural concerns the result is not just a critical reinterpretation but more important a regeneration of jungian thought about the book for the website begun as a scholarly work of religious and psychiatric import 9 11 and its aftershocks has turned this work on messianism to the task of survival of our civilization for the core motivations of widely disparate people islamic terrorists israeli settlers and american fundamentalists are frankly messianic and they are positioned to move the world towards a disaster long depicted in apocalyptic terms on the plains of abraham but now also present in our midst a degree of self sacrifice is present in messianism ranging from the purely spiritual to full expression in the islamic terrorist who glories in a physical immolation that leads to eternal life the crucial issue for the rest of us lies in its imperative nature calling for the termination of our lives can we reach such people who live in these other spiritual worlds and who threaten to evict us from ours they live in the certitude and rectitude of their cause and are intolerant of the ambiguity of modern civilization their certitude lies in a strangely similar belief in a messenger of god who brings tidings of the end of days on earth and a coming glory in a heavenly company populated by god and the principal figures of their religion each of these religions has its own visionary man of god or messiah extant or to come my thesis is that the key to reaching such imbued people so alienated from the rest of us is through utilization of the little we know of reaching alienated individuals and groups that knowledge has been chiefly developed in asylums by the original alienists psychiatrists also the social and political sciences and the pastoral discipline the messianic imperative scourge or savior is offered as a contribution to that study more so it is offered as a journey into unfamiliar terrain it may hopefully lead to a manual for action on the part of people worldwide alert to the current danger who wish to contribute to the world family aborning in these parlous times
